

Mission Early College High School (MECHS) Military Proclamation

WHEREAS:

- MECHS recognizes military service performed by brave parents of our students;
- MECHS recognizes that our military dependent students often face unique challenges;
- military children are a source of pride and honor to MECHS;
- MECHS recognizes the unsung sacrifices of both our military parents and their children;
- MECHS welcome military dependent students and commends them for their resiliency;
- MECHS will honor the military child during the month of April and their family during the month of November;
- MECHS invites military parents to volunteer in our school as we value the crucial role they hold in our society;
- the staff at MECHS is committed to excellence in educating our military-connected/dependent children and in protecting them.

THEREFORE:

the administration, teachers, and staff at Mission Early College High School do hereby commit to this proclamation, signed on our behalf by our principal, on this 27th day of August, 2020.
