The signature on this agreement obligates the student parent, and/or guardian certifies that the parent/guardian and student understand that they assume full responsibility for the issued instrument. A NON-REFUNDABLE fee of $45.00 (forty-five dollars) per year (June 1 through May 31) will be paid for the use of the district-owned instrument. The fee must be collected before the instrument is issued. A campus administrator must approve all exceptions. Payment will be the responsibility of the parent for any damage or loss of instrument. The parent/guardian understands that they are liable for the replacement cost of the instrument should it be lost or stolen and they also understand they will pay for repair costs that go beyond normal wear and tear. The district assumes no responsibility for loss or theft, even if the loss occurs on school property or at a school activity.
