The Chapter Adviser(s)

1. The chapter advisers shall be responsible for the direct, day-to-day supervision of the chapter and act as liaison among faculty, administration, students, and community.
2. The chapter advisers shall maintain files on membership, chapter history, activities, and financial transactions.
3. The chapter advisers shall regularly review each member for compliance with Society standards and obligations.
4. The chapter advisers shall help the chapter officers understand and carry out their duties.
5. The chapter advisers shall be ex-officio, non-voting members of the Faculty Council.
6. The chapter advisers shall be members of the faculty, appointed annually by the principal, and may serve consecutive terms.

Faculty Council

1. The Faculty Council shall consist of five voting faculty members appointed annually by the principal. The chapter advisers shall be ex-officio, non-voting members of the Faculty Council.
2. No principal or assistant principal may be included on the Faculty Council.
3. The term of the Faculty Council shall be one year. Members may be appointed to consecutive terms.
4. The Faculty Council shall meet at least once a year to review the procedure of the chapter, select members, and to consider non-selection, dismissal, other disciplinary actions, and warning cases.
5. The Faculty Council will develop and revise, when necessary, all chapter procedures for selection, discipline, and dismissal of members, all of which must remain in compliance with the national guidelines.

ARTICLE III

Selection of Members

The National Honor Societies of Socorro High School, is duly chartered and affiliated chapter of this prestigious national organization. Standards for selection are established by the national office of NHS and have been adapted to meet local chapter needs.

1. Membership is open to juniors and seniors who have attended SHS for a minimum of one semester and meet the required standards in four areas of evaluation: scholarship, service, leadership, and character.
2. A five-member NHS Faculty Council will select the students on which the honor of becoming an NHS member will be bestowed. To determine NHS membership the Faculty Council utilizes the candidate's Student Activity Information Form; non-binding input from administration, faculty and candidates; and the Criteria for Membership which follows.
3. Candidates are then notified regarding selection or non-selection. Following notification, a formal ceremony is held to induct all selected candidates. Upon induction, candidates are NHS members.

Criteria for Membership

1. SCHOLARSHIP: A student must have a high school cumulative 90% and have passed all EOC exams for their level. The students meeting the scholarship criterion are invited to complete a Student Activity Information Form.
2. LEADERSHIP & SERVICE: The Student Activity Information Form, distributed at an announced meeting for eligible students and their parents, provides the Faculty Council with information regarding the candidate's leadership, service, and job experience. A history of leadership experiences and participation in extracurricular activities and community service is also included in the Student Activity Information Packet.

LEADERSHIP- The student who exercises leadership:

- * is resourceful in recognizing new problems, applying principles, and making suggestions.
- * demonstrates leadership in promoting school activities.
- * exercises influence on peers in upholding school ideals.
- * contributes ideas that improve the civic life of the school.
- * is able to delegate responsibilities.
- * exemplifies positive attitudes and inspires positive behavior in others.
- * successfully holds school offices or positions of responsibility, conducts business efficiently and effectively, and is reliable and dependable without prodding.
- * demonstrates leadership in the classroom, at work, and in school activities.

SERVICE- The student who offers service:

- * is willing to uphold scholarship and maintain a loyal school attitude.
- * participates in outside activity that demonstrates service to the community.
- * volunteers dependable and well-organized assistance.
- * is gladly available and willing to take on difficult or inconspicuous responsibilities.
- * cheerfully and enthusiastically renders any requested service to the school.
- * is willing to represent the class or school in interclass and interschool competition.
- * performs committee and staff work without complaint.

CHARACTER- The student who:

- * takes criticism and accepts recommendations graciously.
- * constantly exemplifies desirable qualities of personality (cheerfulness, friendliness, poise, stability).
- * upholds principles of morality and ethics.
- * co-operates by complying with school regulations.
- * demonstrates the highest standards of honesty and reliability.
- * shows courtesy, concern, and respect for others.
- * observes instructions and rules, punctuality, and faithfulness both inside and outside the classroom.
- * exhibits powers of concentration and sustained attention evident by perseverance and application to studies.
- * manifests truthfulness in acknowledging obedience to rules, avoids cheating in written homework, and shows unwillingness to profit by mistakes of others.

- * actively helps to rid the school of negative influences or environment.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

1. Membership in an NHS chapter is an honor bestowed upon a student; it is a privilege, not a right. Selection for membership is determined by the Faculty Council and is based upon outstanding scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Once selected, members are required to continue to demonstrate these qualities.
2. Candidates become members when inducted at an official NHS induction ceremony.
3. A National Honor Society member who transfers to a Socorro High School will automatically be accepted for membership in the chapter upon documentation of membership in good standing from the previous school. A transfer member must meet and maintain the eligibility requirements within one semester.
4. An active member in good standing in the NHS chapter who transfers from a Socorro ISD high school may request a letter verifying membership and standing in the National Honor Society.
5. Members who resign or are dismissed are never again eligible for membership or benefits. Notice of dismissal will be indicated on the annual report submitted to the national organization at the end of the school year.

Membership Responsibilities

1. Attendance: NHS members must attend monthly chapter meetings in order to remain in good standing. Unexcused absences from monthly meetings will result in one additional service project for each missed meeting.
2. Scholarship: Grades are reviewed at the end of each semester. A member whose GPA falls below the required 90% is placed on probation. Members are expected to regain the scholastic requirement within the time designated in their probation notice or they may be dismissed from membership.
3. Dues: Members must contribute $30.00 in dues annually.
4. Members must complete a minimum of hours as follows: Junior inductees are required a total of 50 hours by graduation; Senior inductees are required 25 hours by graduation.
5. Chapter Service Projects: The service projects will be selected by the chapter to meet the following criteria:
 - a. to fulfill a need within the school or community
 - b. have the support of the administration and the faculty
 - c. be appropriate and educationally defensible, and
 - d. be well planned, organized and executed.
6. NHS members may not receive payment, award, recognition, or earn a grade for service project hours.

Good Standing

1. End of Year: Members who have not fulfilled service requirements are notified with a probationary status letter and expected to comply by a specified date. Members who fail to meet this deadline may be dismissed from NHS.
2. Seniors: By April 30th prior to graduation, seniors who fail to fulfill all membership requirements may be referred to Faculty Council for dismissal and will not be eligible to wear the NHS collar or be designated as an NHS member in the graduation program.
3. Maintaining Standards: NHS members are required to maintain the same level of performance in all criteria that led to their selection, including scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Those members who fail to meet these requirements may be dismissed from NHS.
4. Students or parents having questions regarding the NHS selection process or membership requirements are encouraged to contact Chapter Advisers.

ARTICLE V

Discipline & Dismissal

1. Members who fall below the standards which were the basis for their selection shall be warned by the Chapter Advisors, placed on probation, and given a reasonable amount of time to correct the deficiency.
2. Failure to correct deficiencies in any of the areas of selection criteria may result in disciplinary measures and/or dismissal from NHS membership.
3. In the case of violation of school rules, honor code, or civil laws, a member does not have to be warned but may be placed on immediate probation pending a dismissal hearing.
4. NHS members who violate school and/or chapter guidelines may receive disciplinary actions by both school administration and NHS Faculty Council.
5. The Faculty Council shall determine when an individual has exceeded a reasonable number of warnings for NHS violations.
6. Concerns of possible violations may be brought to the attention of the chapter advisers by local law enforcement officials, administrators, or teachers. Concerns may be initiated by students through a teacher or an administrator. All concerns must be submitted to Chapter Advisors in writing.
7. In case of impending dismissal, a member shall have the right to a hearing before the Faculty Council.
8. The Faculty Council will review each dismissal case and determine if dismissal is warranted by a majority vote.
9. All dismissals are final. A dismissed student may not reapply to the same or any other chapter of NHS.

ARTICLE VI

Chapter Officers

1. An election for officers will be held no later than the last chapter meeting of the academic year. Elections will be held by secret ballot with only eleventh grade members voting.
2. Only members in good standing will be eligible to vote.
3. All officer candidates must be members in good standing.
4. For each office, the candidate receiving the most votes will serve the following academic year in that position.
5. Officers are under the supervision of the chapter advisers and may be disciplined or dismissed from office for failure to perform the duties of the office or failing to remain in good standing.
6. Dismissal from NHS automatically removes the member from any office held.
7. In the event of an office vacancy, the Faculty Council will appoint an officer for the remainder of the academic year.
8. In addition to elected positions, the Faculty Council and/or the Executive Committee may appoint committee chairs or accept volunteers for the positions. Additional positions and committees may be created as the need arises.
