Library Contract

Please read the following information.

STUDENT
As a student at Escontrias Early Childhood Center, I understand I am responsible for the proper use of the EECC library books, I will take care of all books which I check out. I understand that I may have to pay a fine for damaged or lost books, and I agree to pay any fines for which I am responsible.

PARENT/GUARDIAN
As the parent/guardian of a EECC student, I will help my student to properly care for library books, and I understand fines will be charged for damaged or lost books. I understand library privileges will be suspended if fines or damage or loss are pending. I will help my student to keep books out of the weather.

Students, read with your child. It will be the most important 20 minutes you will spend.

Library Media Center Goals

The EECC Library Goals:
* To provide a safe and friendly learning environment for all patrons
* To provide current high quality resources and instruction for all students and staff
* To provide a learner-centered library program to enhance student achievement
* Provide lessons that will integrate the classroom curriculum

The EECC Library is a place where the community and all patrons are welcome and together we will advocate a love of reading and learning.

Be Safe: Please walk and keep all areas orderly and clean.

Be Respectful: Use polite language and use your library voice.

Be Responsible: Take care of your books. Lost or damaged books will need to be paid for. Food and drinks should stay outside the library.

You may drop them off in the library or with your child’s teacher.

Circulation Policies for Students

Pre-Kinder—The first nine weeks the students will learn book care skills. Students may checkout 1 book at a time. The books will remain in the classroom.

Kinder—Students may checkout 1 book at a time. The books will remain in the classroom.

1st—Students may checkout 2 books at a time. It is the teacher’s discretion if they take them home or leave them in the classroom.

2nd - 5th - Students may checkout 2 books at a time.

All books are loaned out for a 2 week period. Please encourage your child to be responsible and return books as soon as they read the book and test on it. There are no late fines charged to the students, however students are charged fees if there is a lost or damaged book checked out in their name. Students with any overdue books will not be allowed to check out additional books.

Circulation Policies for Guest Patrons

Parents are welcome and are encouraged to register as patrons and checkout up to 5 books at a time for home use. Parents can register as an Escontrias library patron with a valid Texas ID or Driver’s License. Books are loaned out for a 2 week period. Overdue books will be charged late fees at $.05 cents a day up to $2.00. Lost or damaged books will need to be paid for. Food and drinks should stay outside the library.
