Eligibility:
An SISD student is eligible to compete in a varsity athletic contest if he/she:

1. Is a full-time day student (enrolled for at least four hours of credits per day or if in a block scheduling program for 40 hours of credit over a 10-day period).
2. Has been in attendance since the 6th day of school or at least 15 calendar days.
3. Initially enrolled in the 9th grade not more than four years ago.
4. Is less than nineteen years old on Sept. 1, or has been granted eligibility based on disability.
5. Is in compliance with state graduation requirements.
6. Is a member of the resident school district and of the high school attendance zone, or has been continuously enrolled for 365 days.
7. Did not move for athletic purposes.
8. Maintains amateur status.

Specific questions regarding eligibility can be posed to the SISD Athletic Director at 937-0506.

Previous Athletic Participation Form:
A current form must be completed by any incoming grade 9-12 athlete who participated the previous year at a different school.

As pre district policy, an incoming 9th grade student who lives in the high school attendance zone in which he/she is enrolled in does not need to complete a PAPP.

Attending a SISD feeder middle school does not grant eligibility if the athlete does not live in the high school attendance zone.

- Students ineligible due to 2019-2020 grades/credits may begin competition on October 2, 2020, if they are passing all classes September 25, 2020.
- Students eligible to play during intersessions.
- Eligibility Action Dates take effect at end of school day (middle school 3:15 p.m. or high school 4:00 p.m.)
